Filer ID #819652; Form 499Q – Filing due date February 1st, 2006
CC Docket No. 96-45

Dear FCC Agent:

This is a "Letter of Appeal". The revision of Form 499Q was rejected by USAC on the grounds that it was outside the 45-day revision window. While that is true I ask that you consider the following issues:

1. The revision was sent in the same day that I received the USAC invoice, (which was what triggered the discovery of the error). I never had a reason to look at the form after mailing it in January.
2. The error is creating invoices to be paid by my company that will eventually be refunded, (hopefully not just credited to our account) after the true up in April 2007. So why not fix the problem now?
3. We were "De Minimis" before the error occurred, therefore no monies should be owed. The first $1,956 payment has been remitted in good faith.
4. We are extremely strapped for cash to meet our monthly obligations to other creditors for valid charges. Having to pay $1,956 per month is creating an extreme financial hardship for our company.
5. USAC Agent, Fred Theobald, told me on 6/7/2006 that an email had been sent out in February advising me of this situation. I never received it. The only thing I can think of is maybe the spam filter sent it to junk mail. From now on I will check that file everyday just as I do the "in box".

I am respectfully requesting that you make an exception and accept my late revision and correct this problem now instead of waiting for the true up in April 2007.

I am so sorry for the inconvenience this error has caused and appreciate your time and consideration of my request. You may contact me through the above numbers.

Sincerely,

BASIN COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEMS, INC

RE: February 2006 FCC Form 499-Q Revision Rejection

Federal Communications Commission (FCC) regulations require carriers to file an FCC Form 499-A annually and an FCC Form 499-Q quarterly and require the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) to bill contributors based on reported revenues. See generally 47 C.F.R. Part 54. The February 2006 FCC Form 499-Q was due Wednesday, February 01, 2006, with revisions due by Monday, March 20, 2006 (45 days later). This 45 day form revision window is clearly noted in the instructions for the FCC Form 499 Q, is discussed in a document entitled "Helpful Hints" that was included with the form, and is posted on USAC's website www.universalservice.org. In addition, questions concerning forms and revisions can be addressed to USAC via email at Form499@universalservice.org.

Because USAC received the February 2006 FCC Form 499-Q [redacted] Form 499 Filer ID 819652 Basin Communications Systems, Inc. [redacted] window, the form was untimely and will not be processed.

If this submission was intended to revise revenue reported on a previously filed original Form 499-Q, please note USAC has relied upon the revenue previously projected by you for the purposes of calculating your universal service charges for April, May and June 2006. If you failed to timely file an original Form 499-Q, please note USAC has relied on revenue previously reported by you for the purpose of calculating your universal service charges for April, May and June 2006.

When a carrier fails to file an FCC Form 499 by the due date, in order to calculate universal service charges for the relevant period, FCC regulations require USAC to estimate that carrier's revenue based upon previously reported revenue information.

Please note that although you missed the revision window for submission of the Form 499-Q, the annual/quarterly (A/Q) true-up will provide a remedy. USAC's 2007 A/Q true-up will reconcile and revise contributor's account accordingly. The 2007 Form 499 A, reporting annual 2006 revenue, has a due date of April 1, 2007. Upon receipt of contributor's 2007 Form 499-A, USAC will perform the A/Q true-up and post appropriate credits or adjustments to your account.

If you wish to appeal this decision with USAC, your appeal must be postmarked no later than 60 days after the date of USAC's rejection letter. Appeals postmarked after 60 days from the date of this letter will be automatically dismissed.

In the event that you choose to appeal the decision, you should follow these guidelines:

- Write a "Letter of Appeal to USAC" explaining why you disagree with this Form 499-Q rejection letter and identify the outcome that you request.
- [redacted]
- The appeal must identify the "Legal Reporting Name" and "Filer 499 ID".
- Provide necessary contact information. Please list the name, address, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address (if available) of the person who can most readily discuss this appeal with USAC.
- Explain the appeal to the USAC. Please provide documentation to support your appeal.

- Attach a photocopy of this Revised Form 499-Q Rejection decision that you are appealing.
- Mail your letter to:
Letter of Appeal
USAC
2000 L Street, NW, Suite 200
Washington, DC 20036
- Appeals submitted by fax, telephone call, and e-mail will not be process

The response will indicate whether USAC:

- Agrees with your letter of appeal, and approves an outcome that is different from the Revised Form 499-Q Rejection Letter; or
- Disagrees with your letter of appeal, and the reasons therefore.

If you disagree with USAC's response to your "letter of appeal," you may file an appeal with the FCC within 60 days of the date USAC issued its decision in response to your "Letter of Appeal." Again, please note your appeal must be postmarked no later than 60 days after the date of the Appeal Decision. Appeals postmarked after 60 days from the date of USAC's response to your appeal will be automatically dismissed. The FCC rules governing the appeals process (Part 54 of Title 47 of the Code of Federal Regulations 54.719 – 54.725) are available on the FCC web site (www.fcc.gov).

Please be sure to refer to CC Docket No. 96-45 on all communication with the FCC. The appeal must also provide your company's name and Filer ID, plus necessary contact information, including the name, address, telephone number, fax number, and e-mail address of the person filing the appeal. Unless the appeal is by ECFS, please include a copy of the decision at issue.

Appeals submitted via the United States Postal Service, should be sent to the address below (For security purposes, hand-delivered or messenger-delivered documents will not be accepted at this Washington, DC address):

Federal Communications Commission
Office of the Secretary
445 – 12th Street, SW
Room TW-A325
Washington, DC 20554

Documents sent by hand-delivery or messenger should be sent to the following address:

Federal Communications Commission
Office of the Secretary
9300 East Hampton Drive
Capitol Heights, MD 20743
(8:00 A.M. – 5:30 P.M. ET)

Appeals may also be submitted to the FCC electronically, either by the Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) or by fax. The FCC recommends filing with the ECFS to ensure timely filing. Instructions for using ECFS can be found on the ECFS page of the FCC web site. Appeals to the FCC filed by fax must be faxed to 202-418-0187. Electronic appeals will be considered filed on a business day if they are received at any time before 12:00 A.M. (midnight), Eastern Standard Time. Fax transmissions will be considered filed on a business day if the complete transmission is received at any time before 12:00 A.M.

If you have questions or concerns regarding this letter, please contact USAC Customer Service at (888) 641-8722 Option 1, Option 2.

Sincerely,

USAC
